

Governor Fallin's Outstanding Legacy in Agriculture Award

Purpose

Governor Fallin's Outstanding Legacy in Agriculture Award posthumously honors individuals who made significant life-long contributions to Oklahoma agriculture. This distinguished award recognizes posthumously the unique or extraordinary contributions these individuals made to Oklahoma and establishes role models for the agriculture industry.

Eligibility

Eligibility is open to any Oklahoman who has been deceased no longer than 20 years and who during his/her lifetime worked tirelessly to promote Oklahoma agriculture. The impact of this individual's life to Oklahoma agriculture should be evident, whether the nominee was a producer, a commodity board member, a legislator, an educator, a volunteer, or involved in any other aspect of Oklahoma agriculture. The honoree should be an individual whose character, leadership, and passion for Oklahoma agriculture set an example for others to strive for.

Previous recipients of the Oklahoma Ag Hall of Fame Award ARE NOT eligible to receive this award.

Award Process

Governor Fallin's Selection Committee, by their own process, shall select one Oklahoman who best represents the criteria established for the award. Governor Fallin's Selection Committee will be chaired by Secretary of Agriculture Jim Reese and shall include presidents of selected agricultural commodity organizations. The Committee shall also include representatives from agricultural/rural media and farm/ranch organizations.

Recognition

Governor Mary Fallin and Secretary of Agriculture Jim Reese will honor the winner of Governor Fallin's Outstanding Legacy in Agriculture Award on Oklahoma Ag Day, at the State Capitol. The honoree's family will receive a commemorative plaque at the ceremony. The award winner's family will be notified in a timely manner prior to the ceremony.

Selection Criteria

Selection will be based on the completed and signed application form, narrative describing nominee's agriculture legacy, narrative describing nominee's agricultural leadership involvement, and up to three letters of support, all formatted according to the guidelines provided.

Formatting Guidelines and Information for Application

All written components (except letters of support) should be typed using a 12-point font, double-spaced with one-inch margins.

Each applicant should clearly label the parts of the application in the top left corner of each page using the nominee's name, section of application, and page number. Example:

Submit ten (10) copies of the application. Each copy of the application should be bound together with a heavy-duty staple or binder clip. No presentation binders should be used.

Complete the application form included in this document. Applications should contain all requested information and appropriate signatures.

Please read the entire application thoroughly and ask questions well before the submission deadline. Jason Harvey can be reached at (405) 606-1477 to answer questions.
