Stolen Agriculture Report

County: Pratt County

Investigative Services has received the following report:

Be on the lookout for stolen cattle. On 02/13/2014, the Pratt County Sheriff's Office took a report of 12 head of stolen heavy bred cows:

- Black and black – white face
- Weighing approximately 1300-1500 .lbs each
- Cattle had a WF brand on the right rear hip and red ear tags in the right ear
- DW stamped on one side and the name "David Woydziak – 620-653-4883" on the opposite side

Owners had been trucking the cattle out over a period of the last several days and had the cattle in a collection area located just off N.W. 140th Avenue, approximately 3 miles North of US 54 Highway, Pratt County, Kansas.

The cattle were all accounted for on 02/11/2014 around 19:00 hours and discovered missing on 02/12/2014 around 7:30 hours.
