OKLAHOMA
Dept. of Agriculture,
Food and Forestry

There are several versions of electronic CVIs available that can help you increase productivity and efficiency. The following table lists the current approved versions available along with the important differences between them.

For more information, please contact our office at (405) 522-6141.

Name	Pros	Cons	Unique Features
1. VET-CVI The free app can be downloaded to device by searching for the application in the following stores: 1. Google Play Store 2. Apply Store 3. Microsoft Store	• Automatically submits to state of origin, state of destination, and issuing veterinarian • Template ability to save repeat owner and animal information • Upload excel spreadsheet with animal information • No fee involved	• Not all states offer it to their veterinarians • Does not offer EIA test charts	• Offers additional regulatory work including OCV charts & TB test records • No software to purchase • Ability to revise an already submitted CVI
2. GlobalVet Link http://globalvetlink.com	• Automatically submits to state of origin, state of destination, and issuing veterinarian • Online database that will save certificates for 7 years • Template ability to auto populate fields with owner and animal information • Integrate client records from vet practice software programs	• Subscribe for monthly access fee • Annual account maintenance fee	• Upload digital pictures • Offers EIA test charts and Veterinary Feed Directives • Clients can access completed test charts and certificates online • No software to purchase
3. VSPS https://vsapps.aphis.usda.gov/vsps	• Automatically submits to state of origin, state of destination, and issuing veterinarian • Template ability to auto populate with owner and animal information • No fee involved	• Requires USDA e-authentication • Unable to upload spreadsheets	• Upload digital pictures • Offers EIA test charts • No software to purchase
4. Vet Sentry https://www.vet-sentry.com	• Automatically submits to state of origin, state of destination, and issuing veterinarian • Template ability to auto populate fields with owner and animal information • Upload excel spreadsheet with animal ID	• $2.85/certificate	• Revision and On Hold capabilities • Assign clerks (techs) to fill out eCVI. Only issuing veterinarian can submit completed eCVI • Offers EIA test charts • Can use up to 3 unique IDs per animal • No software to purchase