Oklahoma Production Cost Report (Bi-Weekly)

3-6-26

Compared to last report: The fertilizer and oil markets turned erratic this week as Iran shut down the Strait of Hormuz and warned it will attack any ships attempting to pass through the strait. Nitrogen-based fertilizers were extremely volatile, as Anhydrous and Urea have each gained over $100 per ton since the last report. As the conflict involving Iran continues, some buyers have shifted sourcing nitrogen away from Iran towards Russia and others producing countries, adding upward pressure to global fertilizer prices. One contact quoted a price for Urea at $645 a ton at 8:15am on Friday and then called back at 10am and said the Urea quote is now at $760 a ton, that is a $220 per ton increase since Monday morning. Another contact couldn't get a quote on Urea from the Port of Catoosa, as offloading of fertilizer has stopped at the port due to price volatility. In Western Oklahoma, three fertilizer manufacturers will start allocation of Urea and UAN tomorrow, leading to speculation of more price increases. Farm diesel is up 25 cents this report. Oil futures have seen a price increase of $23 a barrel in one week.

Oklahoma Retail Feed Cost Report (Monthly)

3-6-26

Compared to last report: Next month will start summer feed prices. Feed remains inexpensive, and the upcoming report of estimated corn acres to be planted this year will provide insight into potential feed price trends for later in the year. Cottonseed Mill is back on the report, but is being sourced from California at $630 per ton. This week Eastern and South-eastern Oklahoma did get some rain but 45% of the state still remains in at least a D2 Severe Drought level. CME feeder cattle futures have been volatile this week with big moves up and down in the market. Fertilizer and oil markets have been erratic this week, with large price swings that continue to pressure input costs for farmers and ranchers.
